GORDON COLLEGE, ABERDEEN.

LL5847

TUCK'S POST CARD.

CARTE POSTALE. POSTKARTE.

Gordon's College, Aberdeen, founded by Robert Gordon, a Dantzic merchant of the Straloch family, was erected in 1739. It is a day and evening school, having special facilities for technical education. It provides education for about 2,000 boys, and is a well-known school, its scholars having achieved many University successes.

(For Address Only.)

Printed in England.

"ABERDEEN." Series II.
"QUETTE" [Regd.] Postcard 7301.
Raphael Tuck & Sons'
ART PUBLISHERS TO THEIR MAJESTIES THE KING & QUEEN.